

BIO

Ellen Malow is President of Malow Mediation. She has mediated over 2000 cases.

Ellen was a trial attorney for over 12 years before starting her ADR practice 20 years ago. As a trial attorney she handled employment, complex business and personal injury cases. She mediates in these areas as well as commercial and residential construction, landlord/tenant, probate and community association matters.

Ellen obtained her B.A. in psychology as well as her law degree at the University of Texas at Austin. Ellen is a registered neutral with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution. She received advanced mediation training at the Straus Institute at Pepperdine University. Ellen is on the roster for the Gwinnett and Cobb County ADR programs.

Ellen is a member of numerous professional organizations, including the American College of Civil Trial Mediators and The National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. She has served as a mentor in the State Bar of Georgia employment section mentorship program. She is a member of numerous sections of the Atlanta Bar Association, including the Labor & Employment Section, Dispute Resolution, and Litigation Section.

She has authored many articles, has been a speaker for a variety of groups, and has appeared on podcasts.

She volunteers for LifeLine to promote organ donation awareness.